REVEREND ANTHONY JOSEPH ALBANESE

We are so happy to welcome Father Anthony Joseph Albanese as our guest homilist for the Triduum of Prayer on August 7, 8, and 9. Father Anthony is the Parochial Vicar at Saint Laurence Parish in Upper Darby, Delco. Father just completed his first year of priesthood after being ordained a priest on May 20, 2023. Father Anthony says that he loves everything about being a priest, and is looking forward to what the Lord has in store for him in the future.

Father graduated from Villanova University, with his undergrad degree in Spanish and Education and taught Spanish for six years in public middle and high school. He attended the University of Pennsylvania for graduate study.

Father Anthony is an Italian-American, and still has relatives in Abruzzo and Naples, Italy. He enjoys going for walks, reading intriguing material, listening to Bishop Barron, playing tennis and ping pong, dancing, the Jersey Shore, his Italian culture, learning about Hispanic cultures, and spending time with his family and friends.

Please extend a warm welcome to Father Anthony when you attend the Festival Triduum.
